High Performance Sport NZ

The objectives of HPSNZ, as set out in its Constitution, are to:

- make New Zealand the most successful sporting nation in the world by developing high performance sport;
- create a more focused high performance sport system in order to advance the other objectives;
- ensure the high performance sport system is as efficient as possible in order to advance the other objectives;
- effect a culture change in New Zealand high performance sport with an increased focus on excellence;
- be the lead agency for New Zealand high performance sport including athletes and sports people and provide a holistic and multi-disciplinary educational approach for overall personal, career and athletic development of high performance sports people;
- ensure that world-class coaches are recruited, developed and retained to train our high performance athletes and sports people;
- maximise the use of technology and innovation in high performance sport;
- educate, and support the education and development of high performance sports people including by providing access to financial support such as scholarships and grants;
- increase the number of high performance sport facilities and services in New Zealand;
- ensure that national sport organisations are accountable for meeting agreed high performance outcomes; and
- ensure alignment and continuity between high performance sport and community sport.

As HPSNZ is wholly owned by Sport NZ, Sport NZ retains ultimate accountability for the oversight and delivery of HPSNZ's high performance programme. It is subject to its Constitution, the Crown Entities Act 2004, the Companies Act 1993, and the Sport and Recreation Act 2002.
