Section 2 — Who is Team 2011?

Ask the group who is Team 2011? Prompt the group to think about the different Functional Areas involved. Write the answers onto the whiteboard.

Talking points include:
- Part of a bigger team making this amazing Tournament happen – Team 2011 ‘face of the Tournament’.
- Introduce theme of wider workforce and stadium of 4 million.
- Delivering an operationally successful Tournament.
- Customer excellence to an estimated 85,000 visitors from over 127 countries.
- An opportunity to showcase our national rugby passion, our beautiful country, landscape, people and culture to the world.

Take the group through the Rugby World Cup structure to show how they get from the IRB to RNZ 2011 (Team 2011).

|       | Ask for a volunteer from the group. Ask them to place their hand against yours. Tell them to watch your hand and mirror your movement. They will find it difficult to keep up.
Ask the group to name the Australian comedy Kath and Kim. Ask what is their catch phrase? “Look at me, look at me”
Tell them to place their hand against you but this time they should look at you and try to mirror your hand movement. They will find it a lot easier. |

De-brief:
- Sometimes we focus on the individual task and we can find ourselves getting overwhelmed, we should be focusing on building relationships working together to get tasks done. It is about working together i.e. Team 2011.

| 25 min | Take the group through the generic section of the Training manual. Each team is given a section in the training manual (generic section) to prepare a 5 minute presentation on the key messages. Allow each team 10 minutes to prepare. |

By the end of section 2 the learner will have an understanding of the different Functional Areas & Workforce Squad roles and responsibilities.
Section 3 — Workforce squad roles and responsibilities

Ask who can remember the meaning of He ringa manaaki?

Talking points include:

- He ringa manaaki means the act of hosting or caring
- Looking after the well being of our team and visitors
- Manaakitanga is a word closely associated with Rugby World Cup 2011. Another way of illustrating this role is the use of the term ‘Stadium of four million’ A simple acronym has been created to help you remember, and it has a kiwi twist, C.A.R.E

Ask the group if they can remember what CARE stands for?
Take them through each word.

Place 4 sheets of flipchart on the wall, outlining the four words of the acronym.

In pairs write on post it notes what CARE looks like in action for each word. Allow 2 minutes. Ask them to walk around the room to each poster to place their post it note.

Prompt the group by asking who are our customers? This will give them an understanding of how the activity works.

Examples include:

Customer
- Prompt who are our customers

Attitude
- Positive and vibrant

Respect
- Cultural and individual differences

Engaging
- Communication and listening

Debrief the activity by getting the group to stand around each poster and discuss common themes or ask what they meant.
Group activity — A day in the life of the Workforce Squad

Split the group into teams according to their role:
- Workforce Manager
- Workforce Squad

Using the functional area section of their training manual create either a skit or presentation that illustrates a typical day in the life outlining their key roles and responsibilities. Encourage each team to be as creative as they can. Allow them 15 minutes to prepare a 5 minute presentation.

Debrief the session to ensure that key information for both roles has been covered.

Workforce Operations – Group discussion

Ask the group to name the operations that the Workforce team will be responsible for managing. Prompt the group to list the following:
- Team 2011 Check-in
- Workforce Catering
- Workforce Scheduling Support
- Workforce Recognition
- Team 2011 Communication
- Workforce Incident Management

Lead a group discussion that outlines the purpose and key tasks for Team 2011 Check-in.

Purpose
The Workforce Squad will check in all Team 2011 representatives at the beginning of their shift and distribute meal vouchers.

Key Tasks include:
- Create a welcoming and friendly environment
- Greet people as they arrive. You will be the first people a Team 2011 representative will see when they arrive on shift
- Ensure Team 2011 representatives are wearing their correct uniform
- Assist with any scheduling issues
- Provide any daily information
- Tick people off the daily schedule
- Distribute meal vouchers
- Ensure they know where they are going and who they are reporting to.
| 20 min | Workforce Operations – Group Activity
Split the group into pairs to write up a similar list on flipchart chart paper and present back to the group. Give each group one of the following Workforce Operations. Allow 15 minutes to prepare a 2-5 minute presentation using the functional area section of their training manual.
- Workforce Catering
- Workforce Scheduling Support
- Workforce Recognition
- Team 2011 Communication
- Workforce Incident Management | PPT 19
Workforce Operations group activity
By the end of section 3 the learner will have an understanding of their Workforce Squad role and responsibilities and key festivals, events and activities that are happening during the Rugby World Cup 2011.
Debrief the session.
Outline the importance of their role as the force behind the scrum, the motivators, warm and friendly. The Workforce Squad is critical for ensuring the successful delivery of Rugby World Cup 2011. They will look after the wellbeing of Team 2011 representatives, we embody He ringa manaaki — with open arms. |
Section 4 — Next steps

Talking points include:

- Captains run
- Ongoing communication updates
- Uniform and accreditation
- Services available to Team 2011 i.e. public transport and parking...

5 min

- Take the group through what we say we’ll do, then do, has a BIG impact slides

  Ask the group to tell you what is the first thing that comes to mind when they see the brand on screen? Show all brands. The last brand shown is RWC2011. Click to show next slide.

  Explain: Our reputation is the expectation from our visitors/clients and the experience they receive. Ask: what do you want them to say when the Rugby World Cup is long finish. Talk about the opportunities that we have and the role that we will play.

5 min

- Question and answer session

  Take the group through the remainder of questions or concerns that have been left on the board from the welcome session.

5 min

- Post it speed date activity

  Each person writes one thing that stood out what they learnt, or they enjoyed about the session. When instructed, everyone gets out of their chair and mingles with others.

  They share their post it note, then swap with the person, then go and find someone else, who shares their new insight from their last interaction. Each interaction shouldn’t take more than 30 seconds

  Keep the group going for 2-3 minutes.

Wrap up

- Take time to thank each individual as they leave training. Encourage them to keep in contact if they have any enquiries.

---

By the end of section 4 the learner will have an understanding of their responsibilities prior and during the Tournament as well as being a valued and important part of the Workforce Squad.
