Situation

A coach approaches you after the game

People involved

Yourself and the coach of the losing team

Prior related events

The game was highly contested, with a close finish between both teams. Game was generally played in good spirits.

Perceived behaviours

Did not hear much from the coach during the game apart from the odd query.

Anything else?

No history of issues with either players or coaches

Player/Coach/Supporter Card

Situation

Your team has just lost a tight game, but despite that you feel the ref did a pretty good job. You want to give the ref a bit of grief but all in good jest. Let the ref know by the end of the chat that you think he did ok.

How do you feel?

You're frustrated with the performance of your own team. You're disappointed that things didn't work out.

Related information

You haven't seen this official before and think they're relatively new, but they were consistent which was all you ask for.
