

Officials Card

Situation

A coach approaches you after the game and challenges you on a critical call made during the game.

People involved

Yourself, the coach and a couple of players.

Prior related events

There was obstruction by another player which directly contributed to the goal/try being scored.

Perceived behaviours

You are feeling worn out as there was a lot of yelling by both coaches and supporters during the game.

Anything else?

The approaching coach seems very exasperated. While you've refereed this team before, things have normally been fine.

Player/Coach/Supporter Card

Situation

You've just lost a key game due to what you feel is the inconsistency of the ref. They ruled obstruction on one of your players which resulted in the winning of the game, but a similar obstruction by the opposition was not treated the same way.

How do you feel?

You feel pissed off as you expect consistency and you feel you haven't seen it in this game.

Related information

You've had issues with this ref before and you're feeling that they're biased against you.
