Situation

A coach looks very angry and approaches you after the game regarding your sending off of his son in the second half of the game.

People involved

Yourself, the coach and his son.

Prior related events

The player you sent off was verbally warned, shown a yellow card and then infringed again late in the game. The infringement warranted his sending off.

Perceived behaviours

The coach is very aggressive, using foul language and questioning your ability.

Anything else?

The coach was from the losing team.

Player/Coach/Supporter Card

Situation

Your son was sent off during the game and it had an impact on the result which didn't go your way. Your son hasn't been sent off before and is very upset.

How do you feel?

You feel angry and upset. While your son did infringe in the game he didn't deserve to be sent off as he doesn't have a history of this.

Related information

You saw similar infringements from other players that weren't handled in the same manner by the official.
