Player/Coach/Supporter Card

Situation

Your side has just been penalised again for what you feel is a technicality. This ref seems to have it in for your team, while the other team gets away with everything.

How do you feel?

Pissed off as this ref doesn't seem to know what they're doing and seems to be picking on you personally as well. All you want is answers but they won't give them to you.

Related information

Players on the other team seem to know the ref and the conversation between them is informal which makes you think the ref is biased.
