

Tyler Hamilton, who won gold for U.S. in Athens in 2004, requests that his name is erased from Olympic record book

As the London Games approached, Hamilton - who admitted to doping on '60 Minutes' a year ago - voluntarily returned the 2004 gold medal, opening the door for the IOC to re-assign it to the runner-up.

BY NATHANIEL VINTON Follow / NEW YORK DAILY NEWS /

Thursday, August 9, 2012, 6:59 PM

AAA

MICHAEL KAPPELER/AFP/GETTY IMAGES

American cyclist Tyler Hamilton wins gold at the 2004 Olympics in Athens.